The screenshot shows the 'xScribe' application window with the 'Publication Information' tab selected. The interface includes a 'Publication Name' field at the top. Below it, the 'File Info & Location' section contains radio buttons for 'Local Directory', 'P:XML Printer', 'HTTP/Web Site', 'E-Mail/SMTP', and 'FTP'. The 'Local Directory' option is selected, with the path 'C:\My Documents\Clients\' entered in the adjacent text field. Other options have their respective URL or email fields. A 'Browse' button is next to the directory path. Below this, the 'Template Type' is set to 'Financial Analytics Asset Allocation' in a dropdown menu. A checkbox for 'Launch Browser after publication' is checked. At the bottom are 'Cancel' and 'Publish' buttons.
